

MARSHAL'S BATON

TO VON HINDEBURG
Kaiser Promotes General
Who Is Fighting the Russians, Although He Has Not Yet Won Victory.

Berlin, November 28.—(Via The Hague to London, November 29.)—The first field marshal's baton of the present war has been awarded to General von Hindenburg for his series of victories in defending East Prussia against the Russian invasion. General von Hindenburg, who has been promoted to a lieutenant generalship for his share in the successes.

The award to Von Hindenburg comes with the great eastern battle still undecided, as a reward for preliminary victories at Wloclawek and Lodz, which, it is said, have cost the Russian army the lives of 60,000 prisoners. It is taken here to indicate that the emperor is confident Von Hindenburg will defeat the Russian army.

The honor of receiving the grand cross of the Iron Cross, the emblem given a field marshal, is the highest military distinction a German can receive, and was won by Von Hindenburg, as in the case of the first Von Moltke, a great general of the Prussian army.

The new emperor's appointment of Von Hindenburg to the rank of field marshal is a great honor, and is a sign of the confidence which the emperor has in the general. The elevation of Von Hindenburg will be generally acclaimed in Germany, where he enjoys great popularity.

Von Hindenburg Lauded.
The newspapers comment appreciatively on the honor conferred on Von Hindenburg.

"It is fitting that the first man to receive the rank since the days of Napoleon should be the man who has won the great teacher of the Prussian army."

"The fact that the emperor has promoted Von Hindenburg to the rank of field marshal is a sign of the confidence which the emperor has in the general."

"The Russian army has been defeated in the battle of Lodz, and the emperor has promoted Von Hindenburg to the rank of field marshal."

BOBS IN MEXICO

Gen. Pablo Gonzalez Quits Carranza and Proclaims Himself Provisional President—Gonzalez Has 8,000 Troops.

Washington, November 29.—State department advises today reported that General Pablo Gonzalez, now at Pachuca, with 8,000 troops, had proclaimed himself provisional president of Mexico.

Gonzalez was one of the foremost leaders of the constitutional army in the campaign against Huerta. After the Aguas Calientes convention, however, he disappeared southward with his army and his whereabouts since then has been a mystery.

The state department reports came from Aguas Calientes. They gave no details. It is not believed here that Gonzalez, with his comparatively small force, will be able to interfere with the forces of Provisional President Guiterrez and General Villa for a joint triumphal entry into Mexico City.

MODERN DANCE SCORED BY MR. DUNBAR OGDEN

Dancing Not Wrong, But Present Conditions Are Cause of Criticism.

Dr. Dunbar H. Ogden, of the Central Presbyterian church, Sunday evening directed a series of statements against the modern conditions of the dance.

"The church has always had a attitude of warning and condemnation against the theater, card playing and dancing. This is not because the church does not sanction pleasure, but because these particular pleasures have constantly presented an evil tendency."

"There are two positions to take, either to withdraw and let the dance go, or to place a restraining, controlling touch upon their trend. I take it that we would demand that the streams of amusement be purified when they are foul."

"In the quotation from Job, 'They said that their little children like to dance and their children dance,' the Hebrew word then assumed the significance of the word 'to dance'."

"It is a natural part of the human nature to dance. It is a natural part of the human nature to dance. It is a natural part of the human nature to dance."

STRIKE COMMISSION NAMED BY PRESIDENT

Seth Low, C. W. Mills and Patrick Gilday Appointed to Adjust Colorado Trouble.

Washington, November 29.—President Wilson today announced the appointment of Seth Low, of New York, Charles W. Mills, of Philadelphia, and Patrick Gilday, of Cleveland, Pa., as a commission through which future differences between Colorado coal operators and their striking employees may be settled.

The commission, officials explained, was not to deal with the existing difference which has caused rioting and bloodshed in Colorado. Myrdal Devereux and W. R. Fairley, secretary of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co., were appointed to settle the strike, will continue in their efforts to have the operators and miners agree.

Carlisle to Play Auburn

On Grant Field Saturday

Atlanta football fans will witness their final game of the football season on Saturday, when the Carlisle Indians come here for a game with the Auburn Tigers.

The game was arranged by Charlie Wahoo, a former Carlisle star, and now a resident of Atlanta. Being the first appearance of the Indians in this section, the game has occasioned considerable interest.

The Indians have been coming to the front of late. They started off poorly, but they seemed to have struck their real stride.

The game will be played on Grant field, Auburn, with the Carlisle Indians as the home team. The game is expected to be a close one.

President Wilson has a busy week before him in preparation for the convening of congress. Besides completing his annual message, he will discuss the European situation with two American diplomats just back from the war zone, consider various pressing domestic problems and receive a number of important callers.

Trade Shows Improvement; Depression is on the Wane

$46,000,000 Trade Balance for United States in November, Declares Dun.

Dun's report says: Domestic business continues abnormal in volume, but there are many signs of improvement. The confidence inspired by the recent cold weather in helping retail distribution has been a real asset. The wholesale jobbing trade, while collections are slower, is easier. Advice from most of the industrial and commercial centers indicates a trend toward better conditions. Bank clearings and railroad gross earnings, however, still show heavy depression. The volume of the trade in the first two months of the year is estimated to be at a very low point, and apparently will remain so until a decision is reached in regard to rates, which it is expected will be reached in the first of the year. In the iron and steel trade, while the market is somewhat better capacity, there is, nevertheless, evidence of an improving economic demand in addition to the normal demand for the opening of the year. The volume of the trade in the first two months of the year is estimated to be at a very low point, and apparently will remain so until a decision is reached in regard to rates, which it is expected will be reached in the first of the year. Actual Business Conditions Following Better Sentiment, Says Bradstreet.

Bradstreet's report says: The business conditions of the country are improving, though the movement has been slow. The depression now apparent is not so deep as it was some time ago. The sentiment is better, and the volume of business is increasing. The volume of the trade in the first two months of the year is estimated to be at a very low point, and apparently will remain so until a decision is reached in regard to rates, which it is expected will be reached in the first of the year. In the iron and steel trade, while the market is somewhat better capacity, there is, nevertheless, evidence of an improving economic demand in addition to the normal demand for the opening of the year. Further Substantial Progress Made in Repairing Damage Caused by War.

New York, November 29.—The event of the financial week, mainly because of the reopening of the stock exchange, has been the further substantial progress made in repairing damage caused by war. The volume of the trade in the first two months of the year is estimated to be at a very low point, and apparently will remain so until a decision is reached in regard to rates, which it is expected will be reached in the first of the year.
